16 Nov - Floating Village & Killing Field (B)

Rise early this morning to watch the sun rise over Angkor Wat. After breakfast at the hotel, take a boat trip on the Tonle Sap, Cambodia's unique 'Great Lake'. Visit Chong Khneas village supporting a community of Khmer and Vietnamese inhabitants. The village consists of dwellings anchored to the lake bed, with a floating school, police station, and shops. On the way back to Siem Reap stop by one of the infamous 'killing fields', a chilling reminder of Khmer Rouge misrule between 1975 & 1979. You do have the option not to see the killing fields and have a relaxing afternoon at your resort if you chose to. This is a kind note that the Killing fields can be quite disturbing to some visitors.
